Hindsight

I said to you, "Oh, please be mine;
Be mine forever, Valentine."
I must have seemed like quite a fool,
Although I thought I was being cool.

I swore that we would never part,
As I put my hand upon my heart.
Had I been thinking with my head,
I'd probably have fled instead.

Timeless Valentine

As time goes by from year to year,
One thing is surely true, my dear;
Though decades come and decades
go,
Just seeing you sets me aglow.

Time shifts my body; I start to sag,
When I pass a mirror, it can make me gag.
My joints all ache; I can hardly move;
Still a smile from you, and I'm in the groove.

Getting older can be a pain,
But with you along, I can't complain.
Despite the things that we go through,
I know I'll never stop loving you.

Your loving heart turns life to play,
As we laugh at time from day to day.
So I write this poem, and I'll hang
my sign,
Saying, "Always Be My Valentine."

Be Mine

Happy Couples, The Lillich's and the Ellis's

2-20-10 Jim Squirrel gave a talk on elk hunting at the Inn. Jim has been a guide outfitter for 50 years, starting when he was 18 years old. He says elk hunting is a thinking man's sport. The most effective way of hunting is in a group of 6 to 10 hunters, but the most fun is when it is just you and the elk. Twenty five people were on hand to listen to Jim's advice while some people ran video cameras and a voice recorder. He was thanked with a round of applause. Photos by Cheri Ratliff
